

Bustles & Breeches

About us

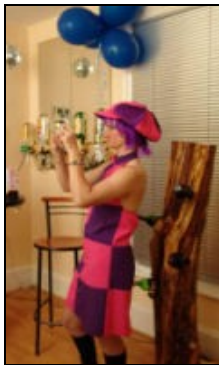

Some 25 to 30 years ago Maureen Hill found herself, like so many mums, with two little girls who loved Dancing. Trips of 2-3-4 times a week to a local Dance School for Ballet, Tap and Modern Dance Classes, then Saturdays & Sundays taken up by Dance Festivals around the Kent area.

A natural progression was in to Amateur Productions which lead on to Professional involvement both for Maureen, back stage as Wardrobe Mistress and her daughters often on stage as well.

For 15 years there has been a Fancy Dress shop in Tonbridge by the name of Fancy That owned and run by Maureen but in October 2005 her love of Costume finally got the better of her when Bustles & Breeches came on the market and she is now the proud owner of a 2 unit warehouse full of some 11,000 Costumes to suit all tastes, from Elvis Presley to Abba and Mikado to Annie Get Your Gun.

Maureen and her team are working hard to provide a "Centre for Costumes" in the Gravesend area and she brings with her many years of experience, which include Wardrobe Mistress, Seamstress and a broad knowledge of Dance - as well as being trained in Theatre Make up.

Maureen recently sold Fancy That to concentrate on Bustles & Breeches - making it one of the most specialised costumes outlet in Kent.
